

nomen omen

The stubbornness and the boldness in the end have rewarded who he has always believed in the potentialities of its territory. D'Amico Girolamo, Rapini Louis and Priore Ulrico has him done to win the challenge, thrown 1979 in the far one there, to reach the highest qualitative standard with the production of classical sparkling wine in Puglia.

BIOGRAPHIC NOTES

D'Amico Girolamo. Chemist and technical person in charge. Born the 07/09/1954, conferred a degree in industrial chemistry, system signboard and Alimentary Technologies near Superior Education Institute "Alessandro Minuziano" of San Severo. He cultivates the passion for music and has had musical experiences as a trumpet.

Rapini Louis. Sales and marketing person in charge. Born the 12/11/1957, holder of a diploma at the Conservatoire in Pescara in piano, teacher of musical education in the secondary school of first degree. Artistic family son: the father has worked at a cellar of champagne. The of current public affairs one cures business; of french mother tongue he keeps the contacts with french producers and wine research institutes. He cultivates the passion for the philatelic and numismatic collecting, he takes delight in figurative arts.

Priore Ulrico. Person responsible for cellar and system maintenance. Born the 01/12/1953, collaborated for many years as cellar technician at wine companies of San Severo, at present is full-time the chef d'Arapri cellar Cave. Keen jazz musician and he same autodidact musician has to his assets several musical cooperations with several jazz groups as a double-bass player.

